Chamber of Music: PSG International Anthology of Short Stories

By Charlotte Ashley

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 250 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.6in. Violins, pipes and cellos, Orchestras, choirs and solos, Songs to remember, Songs to forget, Songs to unmake the universe. . . And songs to put it all right. Have a seat in the Chamber of Music. These thirteen stories will take you to distant lands of faerie lords, lovelorn angels, plucky skyship pilots and plague-ravaged scavengers. They will guide you through our dark histories, our heartbreaks, our losses and revenges; our triumphs, escapes, recoveries and redemptions. No matter where, when, or whose story is being told, this collection will inspire and thrill you with the transformative power of music. This, the second annual short story collection from PSG Publishing, contains the work of thirteen authors from seven countries writing in a variety of genres and styles. Featuring new stories from Charlotte Ashley, J. D. Carelli, Emerald Delmara, Dorchi Dreen, Kim Fry, Yzabel Ginsberg, Tim McFarlane, Ken Magee, Milo Petrik, J. B. Roger, C. M. Rosens, Natasha Rowlin, and Adam Sigrist. Proceeds from sales of the Chamber of Music will be donated to Musicians Without Borders, a global network organization using...
