Brand New Book. A wounded warrior and his younger brother discover the true meaning of Christmas in this timeless story of family bonds. As far as ten-year-old Miller McClellan is concerned, it s the worst Christmas ever. His father s shrimp boat is docked, his mother is working two jobs, and with finances strained, Miller is told they can t afford the dog he desperately wants. Your brother s return from war is our family s gift, his parents tell him. But when Taylor returns with PTSD, family strains darken the holidays. Then Taylor s service dog arrives--a large black Labrador/Great Dane named Thor. His brother even got the dog! When Miller goes out on Christmas Eve with his father s axe, determined to get his family the tree they can t afford, he takes the dog for company--but accidentally winds up lost in the wild forest. The splintered family must come together to rediscover their strengths, family bond, and the true meaning of Christmas.
