A life Unspoken is about one woman having to face the truth about her past. Brenda is a timid woman, bullied by her strict religious mother, she married a man she didn t love. Henry was kind but Brenda longed for another life. Now he is dying and a visit from a stranger makes her relive a time of guilt and tragedy but Brenda eventually finds the courage to take control of her own life. for its never too late. This short one-act play is essentially Brenda s monologue with flashbacks in dreamlike scenes. A cast of seven other characters play out the story. 3M plus 1boy and 3F who could be doubled or played by the same actress. This touching play offers a strong role for the central character and would make an excellent festival play.
