Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The University of North Carolina Record, Vol. 72: The Law School, April 1909 Six regular courses, three for the Junior Law Class and three for the Senior Law Class, are arranged for those students taking the work leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws. Each course begins in September and ends in May of the University year. Thirteen and one-half hours of class instruction a week, divided into nine lectures of one and one-half hours each, are provided for each of the two classes; and to the courses as now scheduled two or three additional hours of lectures a week are expected soon to be offered in both Junior and Senior Years. Dr. Maonider Will also deliver a special series of lectures on Medical Jurisprudence, at times hereafter to be announced; and law students registered for less than three of the regular courses, or whose engagements otherwise permit, will be admitted without additional expense to the college courses in Economics and History of Professors Raper and Hamilton. Also, from time to time, distinguished members of the Bench and of the...
