Benedict Spender, ex-quarterback turned snarky-cop, gets his day punted into the odd-ball endzone when Hollywood s most eligible bachelor ransacks a major casino, loots an armored car, abducts a teenage daughter and then blackmails a corrupt executive, all while a lightning storm plays Whack-a-Mole on meandering pedestrians. But it kicks the can out of uncanny when this derring-do fashion-bachelor pins the entire caper on some avant-garde Robin Hood with firefly eyes and hair like a chocolate waterfall. I was on a Hell-Ride with Lucifer s Liberal! Meet some shady-ladies with clothes so incriminating they have to be shredded, a snowball of a dog that pooches the scene and Darth-Kermit, a baritone frog-monster from the dark side. An enjoyable novel-noir that will keep you equal parts intrigued, enraged, enthralled and enlightened. Because. One should always be advised of one s demise, don t you agree? Elegantly illuminated with a collage of computer graphics and classic illustration.
